From Tuesday August 6. to Saturday August 10. 1734.

AT the Court at Kensington, the Eighth Day of August, 1734.

PRESENT,

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

His Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to order, that the Parliament which stands prorogued to Tuesday the Thirteenth of this Instant August, should be further prorogued to Thursday the Twenty sixth Day of September next. And that the Convocations of the Provinces of Canterbury and York, which stand prorogued to Friday the Sixteenth of this Instant August, should be further prorogued to Friday the Twenty seventh Day of the said Month of September.

Berlin, Aug. 10, N. S. The Elector of Saxony arrived at Dresden the 3d Instant from Dantzick. The Demand of 800,000 Crowns made by the said Prince towards the Expences of the War, is fallen to between 2 and 300,000, which the Dantzickers are to offer by Way of a Free Gift, and as an Instance of their Duty and good Affection. It is here reported that the Marquess de Monti is set at Liberty. The Accounts we have out of Poland are very confused; in general, however, they agree, that the Party of King Stanislaus is still numerous and strong. We have just now received Advice, that the Primate is ready to make his Submission to the Elector of Saxony as King of Poland.

Hague, Aug. 17, N. S. The King of Prussia was expected as Yesterday at Cleves, whither M. Luisius his Resident is gone to meet his Majesty by his Order; but his Majesty's Journey hither is now become very uncertain. The States of Holland who separated last Saturday, returned hither last Night in order to resume their Assemblies. His Britannick Majesty's Ministers, and the French and Muscovite Ambassadours, were all Yesterday in Conference with the States Deputies. The last Advices of the 10th Instant from the Imperial Army on the Rhine give an Account, that Prince Eugene had pass'd the Necker, and was marching towards Mentz, in order to pass the Rhine; two Bridges were already prepared for that Purpose. Letters from Franckfort of the 12th Instant advice, that the French, upon Prince Eugene's Motion, had left their Camp near Mentz, and were drawing back towards Spire.

And the Court of Assistants do hereby give Notice, that they shall meet at this Office on Tuesday the Tenth of September, at Eight of the Clock in the Morning, to receive and adjust the Claims of all such Widows as shall be qualified according to the said Rules and Orders.
